

Weekend! Life

PORTLAND TRIBUNE
WEEKEND! LIFE,
MAY 18 2007

SUNDAY

Cocktails and local films

Low-budget filmmaking meets swanky surroundings as two local films are screened in local hotel bars.

MOVIES “Addison’s Wall,” a drama about a young boy coping with emotional trauma, shows in the elegant screening lounge of the Hotel deLuxe (6 p.m. Sunday, May 20, 729 S.W. 15th Ave., 503-219-8627, reservations recommended).

“Inside Iraq” is gonzo documentarian Mike Shiley’s view from the ground in Iraq, where he traveled in 2003. It shows on the big screen in the bar at Pazzo (8 p.m. Sunday, May 20, 627 S.W. Washington St., 503-228-1515).

Cocktails and food will be served at the free events.

— Anne Marie DiStefano

‘Premiere and Grand Finale’

Music Director Carlos Kalmar and the Oregon Symphony perform for the last time this season, presenting works by Schubert, Richard Strauss and Robert Kyr, a professor of composition at the University of Oregon.

— Eric Bartels