

Summer Outdoor Cinema in the Pacific Northwest

By Angela Brown, About.com Guide July 13, 2011

Another of the Northwest's great summer traditions is outdoor cinema. Folks gather in a popular outdoor space, lounge on a blanket or low chair, snack on bring-your-own picnic treats, and enjoy the warm summer evenings while taking in a movie. Often free, cheap, and/or family-friendly, these outdoor summer films can be found all around the Northwest. Here are some of your options:

- Flicks on the Bricks (Pioneer Courthouse Square in Portland)
- Fremont Outdoor Movies (Seattle)
- Outdoor Movies at Magnuson (Magnuson Park in Seattle)
