Hotel deLuxe, conveniently located on the MAX line, breathes new life into old Hollywood glamour with original 1940s crystal chandeliers and updated Art Deco-inspired furnishings. In the rooms, halls, and lobby, the hotel features an impressive collection of photographs from classic film sets, including shots of Ginger Rogers, Federico Fellini, and Bing Crosby. Rooms feature elegant yet comfortable decor with buttery yellow leather upholstery and peacock accents. The deLuxe goes above and beyond with all the modern amenities you could hope for, including a pillow menu and a spiritual menu from which guests may choose reading material about the religion of their choice, as well as an MP3 menu. Visitors can enjoy a cocktail and 1950s charm in the Driftwood Room or exceptional fare in Gracie's restaurant, a throwback to classic Hollywood dining rooms.
